Empowering change through education

Foreword

2025 was a big year for the PMI. We brought people together, sparked important conversations, and made real progress on some of the sector's toughest challenges. From improving member outcomes and supporting trustees, to driving up standards in pensions administration and shaping pension policy through our engagement on the Pension Schemes Bill and beyond - we've stayed focused on what matters.

We've seen the power of collaboration in action. Whether through our events, qualifications, research or partnerships, we've worked with organisations across the industry to raise standards, share ideas and build practical solutions that make a difference.

As we head into 2026 and our 50th year as a professional body, we're excited to keep that momentum going. Our mission – empowering change through education – is more relevant than ever. And we want you to be part of it.

Whether you're looking to sponsor, speak, exhibit, or collaborate on something new, there's a place for you in the conversations we're leading. Together, we can shape the future of pensions and help create better outcomes for members, society and the planet.

We're looking forward to working with you in 2026 and beyond.
