Examination Partner Responsibilities

As an Approved Examination Partner, you shall deliver PMI products in accordance with our Mandatory Documentation (as provided and on the PMI Website) and this Agreement.

The date of the Agreement and duration of this Agreement commences, subject to your approval by us, on the Commencement Date (Date of signing) and will continue until ended by either party in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

PMI Responsibilities

As the Pensions Sector Body, the PMI sets, maintains and monitors qualifications and assessment standards for the Sector. It works with colleges, private training providers, and employers to ensure that standards are accurate, fair, and applied consistently across all qualifications and over time.

The PMI will:

- devise and develop qualifications, and keep them under review
- approve education and training partners and centres as being suitable for presenting people for these qualifications
- determine the entitlement of individuals to a PMI qualification
- award and record qualifications
