THE PENSIONS MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE

ADVANCED DIPLOMA IN RETIREMENT PROVISION

ACCREDITATION OF PRIOR LEARNING

PMI is prepared to consider granting credits towards the Advanced Diploma in Retirement Provision (formerly known as exemptions) to holders of professional qualifications or degrees. These take the form of credits against specific units. The granting of such credits is at the discretion of PMI and is not automatic.

Professional Qualifications

Applicants should submit evidence of the qualification held and enclose the appropriate fee. A form is available on the website.

Notes

- (1) Applications can be made when applying for PMI Membership or any time afterwards.
- (2) Original certificates or photocopies which are certified as true copies of the original by their employer must be provided.
- (3) Credits will not be granted on the basis of partly completed professional qualifications or on the basis of experience alone.
- (4) It is not possible to apply for credit from a unit that has been previously failed.

Fees

These are on the website.

Degrees and Professional Qualifications not listed below

The following list is for guidance only. It does not preclude applications from holders of other professional qualifications or degrees. In these instances the applicant must submit details of the examinations passed and the syllabuses studied. Applicants must indicate the extent of syllabus overlap. Considerable overlap is required for credit to be considered.

This is a list of qualifications that are encountered most frequently. It is not an exhaustive list and qualifications not listed may be eligible for credit. Please contact PMI in these cases.
